THE TABERNACLE MEETING.

Religious Movement Launched Last Week Gives Promise of Being Record-Breaker.

It has been a long time since a religious movement in this city and county has attracted so much attention in so short a space of time as has the revival services inaugurated here in a specially designed and constructed tabernacle by the Rev. Mordecai Hamm and his corps of assistants.

Rev. Mr. Hamm, who is a noted revivalist and has conducted numerous successful meetings all over the country, came to Paris practically unknown, save for what was known in an indirect way of his work along religious lines.

The immense tabernacle on Seventh Street, in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Russell Mann, was built entirely by volunteer labor under the personal supervision of Mr. Baumgartel one of Mr. Hamm's aides, and is estimated to have a seating capacity of four thousand. The building is well illuminated and ventilated and its acoustic properties all that could be desired.

Rev. Hamm's "style" seems to one peculiarly his own, but one that carries a conviction of the great earnestness of the man behind it. He has a well-modulated voice of great carrying power, and can be distinctly heard all over the auditorium.

The nightly services have been well attended from the initial meeting, and the crowds seem to increase nightly, until last night the big building was filled to its utmost. They came on foot and in all manner of conveyances, and seemed to be glad that they were there.

The choir, made up of three hundred trained voices, culled from the best available musical talent of all the denominational churches of the city and county, under the personal direction of Mr. Ramsey, the chorister of the organization, is a splendid musical body, and filled the big auditorium with a large volume of vocal music.

On Thursday night of this week Mr. Hamm will deliver another "plain talk" to the men only at the Tabernacle. At the big meeting Sunday afternoon the question was put to the audience by Rev. Hamm, and by a practically unanimous vote it was decided to have the evangelist deliver the second "plain talk" series on Thursday night.

ODD FELLOWS' DAY AT COLUMBIA THEATRE.

Tuesday, Oct. 6, will be Odd Fellows' Day in Bourbon.

On the above date there will be displayed at the Columbia Theatre 1,000 feet of film, showing main building and grounds of the Odd Fellows' Widows and Orphans Home, located at Lexington. All the 125 children are seen; boys at work in garden and farm; children at play and at school; in fact the entire Home in motion for 24 hours.

Every cent above the expenses of showing the films goes toward putting in an industrial plant at the Home, so as to more completely fit the boys and girls for the battle of life when they leave the Home.

Every Odd Fellow in Bourbon should get their shoulders to the wheel and make this banner Odd Fellows Day in Kentucky for this year.

For further particulars see Judge E. B. January.

RESUMES OLD SCHEDULE.

Beginning Sunday morning at 7:15 o'clock, the city car will resume the old schedule. The car will start on the North side of the Court House, on Bank Row, and will run to the intersection of the Hume & Bedford and Bethlehem pikes, at McGinnis' store. The same fare, 5 cents, will continue in effect. The above schedule will not be maintained on the regular interurban cars, the five cent fare applying to points only in the city limits, which end at the Clintonville pike, on the through-to-Lexington cars.

For the past several months the city car has run only to the Clintonville pike and back to the interurban station on High Street. This arrangement proved quite an inconvenience to the people in South Paris, owing to the fact that the original schedule of the city car made the starting point from the rear of the Court House and out to the Bethlehem pike on the five cent fare, and the people had become so accustomed to this arrangement that many homes were built in the suburbs on the strength of the five cent car fare.

The return to the old schedule was made possible after a conference in Paris Friday between City Attorney W. H. Whitley and Mr. J. D. Sallee, of Lexington, General Freight Agent and Superintendent of other cities for the Bluegrass Traction Company.

LOCAL HORSE WINS.

Sheriff Will Talbott was a visitor at the State Fair in Louisville, Tuesday, where he saw his splendid mare, Nancy Baldwin, win her race. Nancy Baldwin is showing exceptional speed this year. She is by Egyptian Baron, dam by Nutbreaker.

Mr. Douglas Thomas won another trotting race at Louisville, Thursday, and was third in another. The race won by Mr. Thomas was a $500 purse with King Todd, and was third with Nancy McGregor in the $1,000 stake. The heats were trotted around 2:13 1/4.

THREE-STORY BUILDING IN RICHMOND COLLAPSES.

The large building in Richmond, known as the Masonic Temple, collapsed Saturday morning about 8:30 o'clock. The building was a three-story one. The lower floors were occupied by the R. C. H. Covington Company, clothing and men's furnishings, while the second floor was used for the fraternity and a dance hall, while the lodge rooms were located on the third floor. It is not known what caused the collapse of the building, as it was remodeled and modernized about five years ago. It was located on Main street on the most frequented corner of the city, and it seems almost a miracle that none of the employees were hurt, as the building is now a wreck.

The crash caused much excitement and was heard several blocks away. The building was valued at about $15,000 and owned by the Masonic order. The damage to it will possibly be from $8,000 to $10,000. The Covington Company carried a stock valued at $25,000, all of which is more or less damaged. The clothing company leased the large rooms in the new Clay building and began moving its stock, while the owners of the building set about to repair it.

ASSASSINATED BY "BOOTLEGGERS."

Robert T. Thurman, a policeman of Glasgow, was murdered between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday morning on West Main Street, and one-half block from the Court Square.

More than one year ago "bootlegging" became so open in Glasgow that something had to be done. Accordingly, the City Council of Glasgow, headed by the Mayor, met and employed Mr. Thurman, with the understanding that he would try to arrest every violator of the law. He was a stranger there, and therefore could have no favorites, and within a few weeks he had arrested and convicted twenty-five persons.

This, of course, made him many enemies, and the threats were frequently heard that they would kill him. Interested persons offered him large sums of money to leave, but these he refused and stayed at his post of duty.

NEGRO KILLED BY TRAIN.

Will Moore, colored, employed as a section hand on the L. & N. railroad, was run over and killed near Gerda Station, on the Winchester branch early Friday morning.

Moore came to Paris early Thursday evening on a hand car, and was told by his foreman, who accompanied him, to be sure to return to Escondido by 9:30 that night.

Nothing was heard of him until early Friday morning when a track-walker found his mangled remains scattered along the track near Gerda Station.

Coroner Davis was notified, and had the remains brought to the undertaking establishment of Geo. W. Davis, where they are being held while inquiry is being made as to his relatives, who are said to live in Louisville.

REFLECT BEFORE YOU VOTE.

PARIS, KY., Sept. 21.

Editor Bourbon News:—

While in Lexington, Sunday, I met an old friend, who is a pronounced Prohibitionist and he asked me what was Bourbon going to do in the election on the 28th. I told him that from the present outlook it seemed to me that she was going to vote to keep Bourbon County money at home. I further told him that it was a well-known fact that the merchants of Lexington were trying to secure the entire trade of all the surrounding towns, and in fact had already secured the cream of the trade of Paris, Georgetown, Nicholasville, Versailles and the intermediate territory between these towns.

I told him that it was well known that the merchants of Lexington were furnishing financial assistance to the "dry" leaders in Paris in an effort to vote Paris dry, and his answer was: "Well, that's business."

As he said, it certainly is business. But it is also "business," and business of far more importance, that Bourbon County money should be spent at home. The business man who votes "dry" has no excuse in the world for complaining about hard times if he himself votes to make it so.

OLD BOURBON.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The County Board of Education met in the office of Miss Robbins, County School Superintendent, Saturday morning and let the contract for the erection of an addition to the colored schoolhouse at Little Rock, to be used as a training school department, this school having received $500 from a fund left by a wealthy white Southern woman, Mrs. Jeannes, for the establishment of this work in various Southern States.

James Ayers was appointed by the Board to fill a vacancy in the primary department of the school at North Middletown.

BANKER JOE HEAD INDICTED.

The Ashland grand jury Saturday afternoon returned seventeen indictments against Joe S. Head, Jr., cashier of the Citizens' Bank and Trust Company, which recently closed on orders of the State banking officials. One indictment charges perjury. Eight charges that Head made false entries, and eight alleged embezzlement. The amount alleged to have been embezzled is $38,892.55.

DEATHS.

GLENN.

A message was received here Saturday morning announcing the death of Mrs. Nannie Tribble Glenn, which occurred in Fulton, Mo., Friday night. Mrs. Glenn was a sister of Mr. Lon M. Tribble, of this city, who was summoned to her bedside last Sunday, and remained with her until the end came. Mrs. Glenn was a native of Carlisle, where she resided before her marriage. She was a daughter of Mrs. Martha Tribble, of Carlisle.

Mrs. Glenn is survived by her husband, Mr. W. E. Glenn, and a four-year-old son. Also by her mother, one sister, Mrs. Oscar Hamm, of Carlisle, and two brothers, Mr. Jos. Tribble, and Mr. Lon M. Tribble, of Paris. She has been in declining health for two years, and had spent one winter in New Mexico, and one in Texas, in a vain search for health.

The burial will take place in Fulton.

FOOTE.

After an illness of several months, following years of suffering from Bright's disease, Mr. Charles W. Foote, one of the best-known citizens of this city, died at his home on Stoner Avenue, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

Mr. Foote had been in declining health for a number of years, but had always been able to be up and attending to the duties of his boat landing and poultry interests, which took up all of his time. He was a home lover in every sense of the word, and had for some time led a rather secluded life in the quiet of his home. He was an ardent sportsman, and being of a jovial disposition was one of the most companionable of men.

Mr. Foote was an accomplished violinist, and in his younger days was the leader of an orchestra composed of the best musical talent in this city. Their services were in constant demand, especially at the old-time dances, and there's many a sad heart in Paris to-day among those who remember the pleasure they experienced in dancing the hours away to the wailing strains of Mr. Foote's violin.

There are others who did not know him in this capacity but who remember with pleasure the jolly fishing trips in which Mr. Foote was the life of the party. He always had a fund of good stories, and his hearty laugh was infectious. He was quite unassuming, but a good friend and a lover of Nature, and whatever faults he had these virtues are sufficient to offset them.

Mr. Foote was 69 years old last May. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laura Foote, one daughter, Miss Etta Foote, of Paris, one son, Mr. Elmer Foote, of Lexington, and two step-sons, Mr. Willard Hutchinson and Mr. Ewd. Hutchinson, both of Lexington.

The funeral took place from the family residence on Stoner Avenue, yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock. Elder W. E. Ellis, of the Christian Church, conducted the services, and the burial followed in the Paris cemetery. The following friends and neighbors were pall-bearers: W. M. Goodloe, Harry Kerslake, F. P. Lowry, Dr. M. H. Dalley, Strother Paynter and E. B. Hedges.

MATRIMONIAL.

MARTIN-RITCHIE.

Miss Hettie D. Ritchie and Mr. Gilbert Martin, both of this county, were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Henry S. Ritchie, near Hutchinson, by Rev. J. J. Dickey.

MIDDLETON-BEEKER.

Mr. Jesse R. Middleton and Miss Katherine Beeker came to Paris from Fayette County, Saturday, secured a marriage license from County Clerk Pearce Paton, and were married by Judge C. A. McMillan.

BIRTHS.

Born, on last Friday morning, to the wife of Mr. Edward Peele, of Tucson, Arizona, formerly Miss Josie Gardner, of Paris, a daughter. The little one has been christened Eleanor Jane, in honor of Mrs. Peele's foster mother, Mrs. Ella S. Isgrigg, and Miss Janie Marsh, both of Paris.

Only the "Wets" vote Saturday. If you are "Dry" be sure and vote Monday.

DEAN LEE SAYS "PROHIBITION A MENACE."

Dean Baker P. Lee, former pastor of Christ Church in Lexington, and one of the most popular ministers in Kentucky, during his residence here, but who is now located in California, in a lengthy article in the Sunday Lexington papers, says, in part:

"Prohibition is a menace to the civil and religious liberty of the American people. It is un-American, intemperate, non-scriptural and un-Christian. If this statement can be proven, then every honest-minded voter in the State of California should rally around the polls at the coming election in November, and by an avalanche of ballots, so overwhelmingly defeat this wolf in sheep's clothing as to effectually silence the bleating of this lamb and growl of this wolf for many years to come."
